

Palliative Care Reaching out – the 12th Congress of the European Association for Palliative Care

Date: May 18-21, 2011

Place: Lisbon, Portugal

Abstract submission deadline: October 15, 2010

Website: www.eapc-2011.org

Description:

The EAPC congress being the most important and popular congress of its kind in Europe, is offering a wide range of topics and contributions from renowned specialists from all over the world. The professional variety and profundity as well as the congress' character as the European networking-place attract opinion leaders and stakeholders from all over Europe.

The participants of the 12th Congress of Palliative Care will have the opportunity to learn about new developments in symptom management, psychosocial care as well as spiritual and ethical issues. Like in previous congresses, a major part of the congress programme will be based on contributions from the participants themselves, giving voice to the stakeholders of this discipline and give insights in latest research results.
